

Continuing Professional Development

Continuing Professional Development (CPD) refers to the ongoing process by which health care professionals maintain, improve and broaden their knowledge, skills and competence throughout their careers.

Scan the QR code for our funded CPD opportunities and application process across Thames Valley

Available to Allied Health Professionals, Registered Nurses and qualified Nursing Associates